

Cal medicinal marijuana law upheld

December 7 2006

---

Although marijuana is illegal under federal law, it's still allowed for medicinal purposes in California after a judge refused to overturn the state law.

Superior Court Judge William Nevitt Jr., upheld last month's preliminary ruling rejecting San Diego County's legal challenge to the practice.

Nevitt ruled that state law enforcement officials are not obligated to arrest and prosecute people who violate federal laws, the San Diego Union-Tribune said Thursday.

Copyright 2006 by United Press International

Citation: Cal medicinal marijuana law upheld (2006, December 7) retrieved 6 May 2024 from <https://medicalxpress.com/news/2006-12-cal-medicinal-marijuana-law-upheld.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.
--