

Back to Nature rice crackers recalled

December 11 2007

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration announced the nationwide recall of Back to Nature Sesame Ginger Rice Thins crackers because of a labeling error.

The Back to Nature Food Co. said the product might contain a milk ingredient not listed on the label, presenting a health risk for people allergic to milk.

The recalled packages display a "Best When Used By 22FEB2008" date and UPC 59283 10013. Approximately 1,150 cases of the cracker packages were distributed nationwide.

Consumers with recall questions can contact the company at 800-433-9361.
