

Web site to raise money for Minn. cancer patient

May 27 2009

(AP) -- A Web site has been set up to raise money for the family of the 13-year-old Minnesota cancer patient who fled with his mother in violation of a court order.

An attorney for the family of Daniel Hauser says the Web site - <http://www.dannyhauser.com/> - also will allow Daniel to communicate with people.

Family attorney Calvin Johnson says he has no estimate of the family's legal or medical bills.

Daniel had an appointment Wednesday with a pediatric oncologist in Minneapolis.

He also has an appointment to receive a round of chemotherapy Thursday.

Daniel and his mother returned to Minnesota on Monday after almost a week on the run. The family prefers so-called natural healing practices to treat the boy's growing tumor caused by Hodgkin's lymphoma.

©2009 The Associated Press. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.

Citation: Web site to raise money for Minn. cancer patient (2009, May 27) retrieved 3 May 2024 from <https://medicalxpress.com/news/2009-05-web-site-money-minn-cancer.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.