

One in three parents report skipping doctor, dentist appointment

December 12 2019

---

(HealthDay)—One in three parents have skipped a doctor or dentist appointment in the past year because they could not afford to pay for visits or find transportation, according to the results of a survey released Nov. 18 by Nemours Children's Health System.

The Harris Poll conducted an online, national survey of more than 1,017 U.S. parents of children aged

Citation: One in three parents report skipping doctor, dentist appointment (2019, December 12) retrieved 26 April 2024 from <https://medicalxpress.com/news/2019-12-parents-doctor-dentist.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.