

France confirms two cases of virus from China, first in Europe

January 24 2020

Credit: CC0 Public Domain

France on Friday announced two cases of the deadly new virus from China, the first cases in Europe.

The two confirmed cases were announced by the health minister, Agnes Buzyn. She said that both of the sickened people had traveled to China.

The minister said she expects more cases. "We have two cases," she said.

"We will probably have other cases."

© 2020 The Associated Press. All rights reserved.

Citation: France confirms two cases of virus from China, first in Europe (2020, January 24)
retrieved 17 May 2024 from <https://medicalxpress.com/news/2020-01-france-cases-virus-china-europe.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.