

Beijing orders quarantine for all international arrivals in capital

March 11 2020

Credit: CC0 Public Domain

All international arrivals in Beijing must undergo two weeks of quarantine, a city official said Wednesday, as China tries to limit imported cases of the new coronavirus.

Beijing had already required quarantine for people arriving from hard-hit countries including South Korea, Iran, Italy and Japan but Zhang Qiang, a city government official, said at a press conference that those landing from any nation would now face 14-day isolation.

© 2020 AFP

Citation: Beijing orders quarantine for all international arrivals in capital (2020, March 11) retrieved 23 April 2024 from
<https://medicalxpress.com/news/2020-03-beijing-quarantine-international-capital.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.