

Sildenafil, trazodone tablets recalled after being packaged together

December 11 2020

Sildenafil and trazodone tablets have been recalled by pharmaceutical distributor AvKARE because the drugs were "inadvertently packaged together" when they were bottled by a third-party vendor, according to the company.

The recall is for 100 mg sildenafil tablets, lot 36884 with an expiration date of 03/2022, and 100 mg trazodone tablets, lot 36783 with an expiration date of 06/2022.

AvKARE said it does not know of any patients being harmed by the recalled products.

For more information about the recall, consumers can contact AvKARE at 1-855-361-3993.

More information: More Information

Copyright © 2020 HealthDay. All rights reserved.

Citation: Sildenafil, trazodone tablets recalled after being packaged together (2020, December 11) retrieved 22 June 2024 from <https://medicalxpress.com/news/2020-12-sildenafil-trazodone-tablets-recalled-packaged.html>

This document is subject to copyright. Apart from any fair dealing for the purpose of private study or research, no part may be reproduced without the written permission. The content is provided for information purposes only.
--