Coronavirus death toll tops 110,000 in Europe

22 April 2020

Credit: CC0 Public Domain

The death toll from the novel coronavirus in Europe has passed 110,000, according to figures compiled by AFP from official sources by 0920 GMT on Wednesday.

With 110,192 people dead from 1,246,840 cases registered, Europe is the hardest hit continent by the pandemic that has killed 177,368 people around the world.

Italy has recorded 24,648 deaths, Spain 21,717, France 20,796 and Britain 17,337.

© 2020 AFP
APA citation: Coronavirus death toll tops 110,000 in Europe (2020, April 22) retrieved 23 September 2020 from https://medicalxpress.com/news/2020-04-coronavirus-death-toll-tops-europe.html